

SECRET WARDLE RECOGNIZES BREAST CANCER AWARENESS MONTH

October is recognized as Breast Cancer Awareness month. On October 20, 2015, Secret Wardle's Troy location participated in generating awareness for the cause by bringing in a mobile mammogram unit for the morning. Employees were invited to sign up for examinations. The mobile mammogram unit was run by St. John Providence Hospitals. Ten-minute chair massages were provided for employees for the morning as well.

Secret Wardle supports a Casual Day Program, which takes place each Friday, where employees may suggest organizations to support. During Breast Cancer Awareness month, two of the Firm's employees sponsored breast cancer awareness fundraising initiatives.

On Friday, October 1, 2015, Heidi VanDenHeuvel, Front Desk Coordinator in the Firm's Grand Rapids location, led the fundraising for her participation in the American Cancer Society's Making Strides event on October 24, 2015. On October 23, 2015, the Firm's Casual Day was dedicated to the Susan G. Komen Breast Cancer Foundation's 3-day walk. Employee Tina Ruhlman, a legal assistant in the Firm's Troy location, sponsored the cause for her participation in the event. This will be Tina's 14th 3-day walk!
